TINTSWALO AT WATERFALL INTRODUCES NEW CONFERENCE PRODUCTS

Tintswalo at Waterfall has introduced two new conference products with the launch of its 'Mongolian' Executive Board Room, which during the winter months will include a complimentary decanter of Whiskey to wrap up the day's work. A brand new, value-add 'Sundowner Experience' has also been launched to be included on a complimentary basis as part of all conference packages at Tintswalo at Waterfall during June and July.

North of Johannesburg within the elite Waterfall Equestrian Estate, the five-star boutique hotel is known for its excellent business facilities and presents a unique countryside experience for event organisers, yet within close proximity to the city.

The new Mongolian Executive Board Room is elegantly appointed, with views across manicured lawns. The spacious venue is perfectly suited for high profile meetings and private dining for executives. Winter Specials until 31 July 2017, offer Half-Day conferencing in the Mongolian Room from R6800 and Full-Day packages from R7600 for between six and eight delegates. Packages include lunch with tailor-made menus, as well as a complimentary decanter of Whiskey to conclude meetings. Also included in conference packages are arrival welcome drinks and snacks, tea and coffee, WiFi, conference call facilities, connection to an LCD screen, as well as a private lounge and waiter/butler service.

Tintswalo at Waterfall offers two other Board Rooms, seating up to 55 delegates. Included on a complimentary basis in all Half-Day, Full-Day or 24-Hour Conferences, the new 'Sundowner Experience' comprises of a substantial snack such as a mini pot-pie or mini-curry, served along with a warming glass of Glühwein or Port to round off the day's work. Half-Day conference packages start at R580 per person, and Full-Day packages at R690 per person (minimum of 20 delegates). The rate includes arrival snacks, lunch and coffee/tea breaks. (Valid until 31 July 2017)

An all year-round '24 Hour Conference Package' is also available at Tintswalo at Waterfall. Priced at R3100 per person, it includes venue hire, tea and coffee, a buffet lunch, two-course set menu dinner, accommodation in a Luxury Suite (single occupation), and a lavish breakfast the following morning. Each of the 15 spacious Suites have been individually designed in the colours and characteristics of the specific horse breeds that they are named after. Featuring all modern conveniences, Suites have large en-suite bathrooms, opulent king-size beds, and seating areas with beautiful balconies sporting views of either the estate dam or polo field.
